HERE WE GROW

The 1960-61 Chilocco school year was eventful for everyone. Classes began September 6, with an enrollment over 950 students. This included the largest number of post graduates and college students to attend Chilocco. There were students from 25 of the 50 states, and a number of college students from our newest state, Alaska.

The traditional watermelon social started the year as a get-acquainted festivity. During the school months that followed, there were numerous sports and social activities which promoted the school spirit.

There were church activities, guard drills, scout drills, band trips, lyceums, movies, and the eagerly anticipated day - Arkalalah. Hobby shows and talent shows were enjoyed by the students; the Easter and Christmas holidays were recognized by pageants presented by the students.

The events for the last month of the school year were the banquets, the prom, the farewell dance, Baccalaureate Services, and the much awaited - Graduation. Yes, the year was truly a memorable one for the students and faculty of Chilocco. The '60-61 school year was indeed a growing one, so we present our CHILOCCOAN yearbook with the theme, "HERE WE GROW."

Mr. James Bearskin

To Mr. James Bearskin, the Senior Class dedicates the 1961 Chiloccoan.

Mr. Bearskin has spent twenty-one years at Chilocco, three years as a student, graduating in 1934, and the remaining years as an employee. He is presently employed in the Plant Management Department.

To The Graduates of 1961 -

We extend to you our congratulations upon your completion of an important educational goal. Along with your teachers, parents and friends, I am proud of your achievement. Never before has education seemed important as it is now. In spite of the shortage of jobs for some, there is still an increasing demand for well-trained, responsible educated workers. You must realize soon, if you have not already, that your learning should not stop now. The schooling you have had may not be enough to help you win a good life in the modern world. You can rely on the vocational training you have had and the guidance Chilocco has given you to make a beginning. Beyond this you need to improve your education more and to make every experience a means of further learning. We urge you to seize every opportunity to advance in the direction you have been going. We hope the sense of values Chilocco has given you will stay with you and guide you in the years to come. Our very best wishes go with you, too.

W. Keith Kelley
W. Keith Kelley,
Superintendent

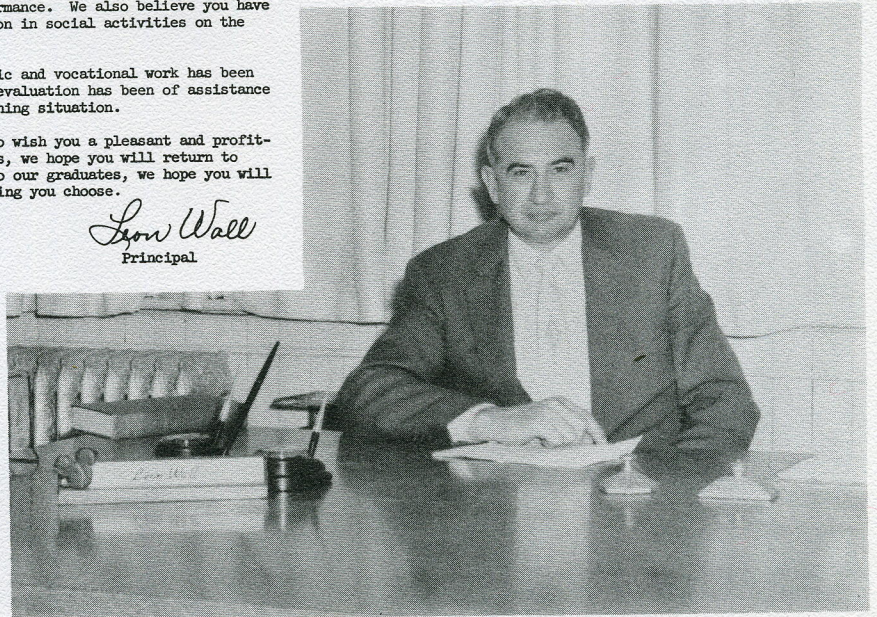

Dear Chiloccoans:

We believe the 1960-61 school year has been outstanding. This belief is supported by the excellent way you have responded to the various programs offered at Chilocco. In your academic and vocational programs, it seems you have worked with the attitude of gaining greater knowledge and better performance. We also believe you have demonstrated excellent participation in social activities on the campus.

As you know, this year your academic and vocational work has been evaluated each week. We hope the evaluation has been of assistance to you in developing a better learning situation.

We wish to take this opportunity to wish you a pleasant and profitable summer. To our undergraduates, we hope you will return to complete your high school work. To our graduates, we hope you will be successful in whatever undertaking you choose.

Lon Wall
Principal

To those who have guided us so well, all we can say is, "you're swell"!

Department Heads gave generously of their time and energy in the interest of education and training for the students of Chilocco. Administrative meetings were held regularly, once each week. Present at this weekly session were, left to right: Mrs. Elizabeth Heagy, Department Head, Home Economics; Mr. George Tlustos, Department Head, Trades; Mr. Alvin Kivett, Department Head, Agriculture; Mr. Jack McCarty, Department Head, Academic; Mr. Leon Wall, Principal; Mr. W. Keith Kelley, Superintendent; Mr. Ray Colglazier, Department Head, Boys' Guidance; Mrs. Mary F. Werneke, Department Head, Girls' Guidance; Mrs. Ida Mae Larney, Department Head, Acting, Special Navajo Program.

Honors

To Sharon Fife went the top-notch honor of Valedictorian of the Class of '61.

Martin Joshua earned for himself the honor of Salutatorian of the Class of '61.

The Honor Society, the "Cream of the Crop"!

The attractive Betty Buffalohead, Senior, was chosen to reign as "Miss Chilocco" 1960-61.

Sharon Fife was chosen by the Football boys for that enviable honor of Football Queen.

The glorified honor of Prom Queen went to a cute little Senior Miss, Madeline Edmo

When it came to electing their queen, the National Guards chose an attractive little Miss from the north country (Alaska), Miss Edna Moto.

The Journalism Class bestowed upon Beverly Moses the crown of Annual Queen.

To Anthony Colwash went the distinguished title of Annual King.

Expressions of deepest gratitude and appreciation go to Sharon Fife and LouAnna Russell, Co-Editors of the '61 Chiloccoan, for their valuable assistance and helpful suggestions.

To June Begay went the honor of being elected Trades' Sweetheart.

Very special honors were bestowed upon Leo Rocky Joe and Alma Spottedwolf when the Indian Dramatics Club voted them "Princess and Brave" for 1960-61.

HOME 4

Guidance
Department

Home Five girls enjoy going to the Canteen each evening.

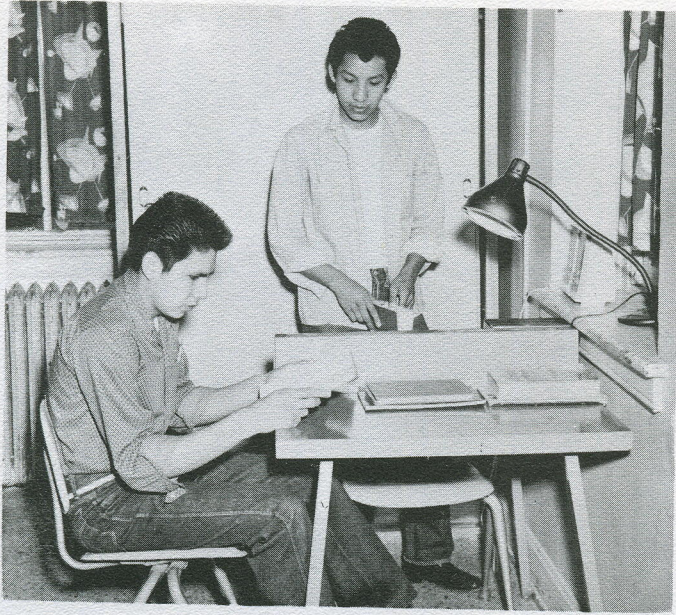

Home Five girls show their eagerness for learning as they leave for classes.

Delores Mitchell and Dana Russell look through magazines for articles of interest.

Home Six boys enjoy an evening with the television set.

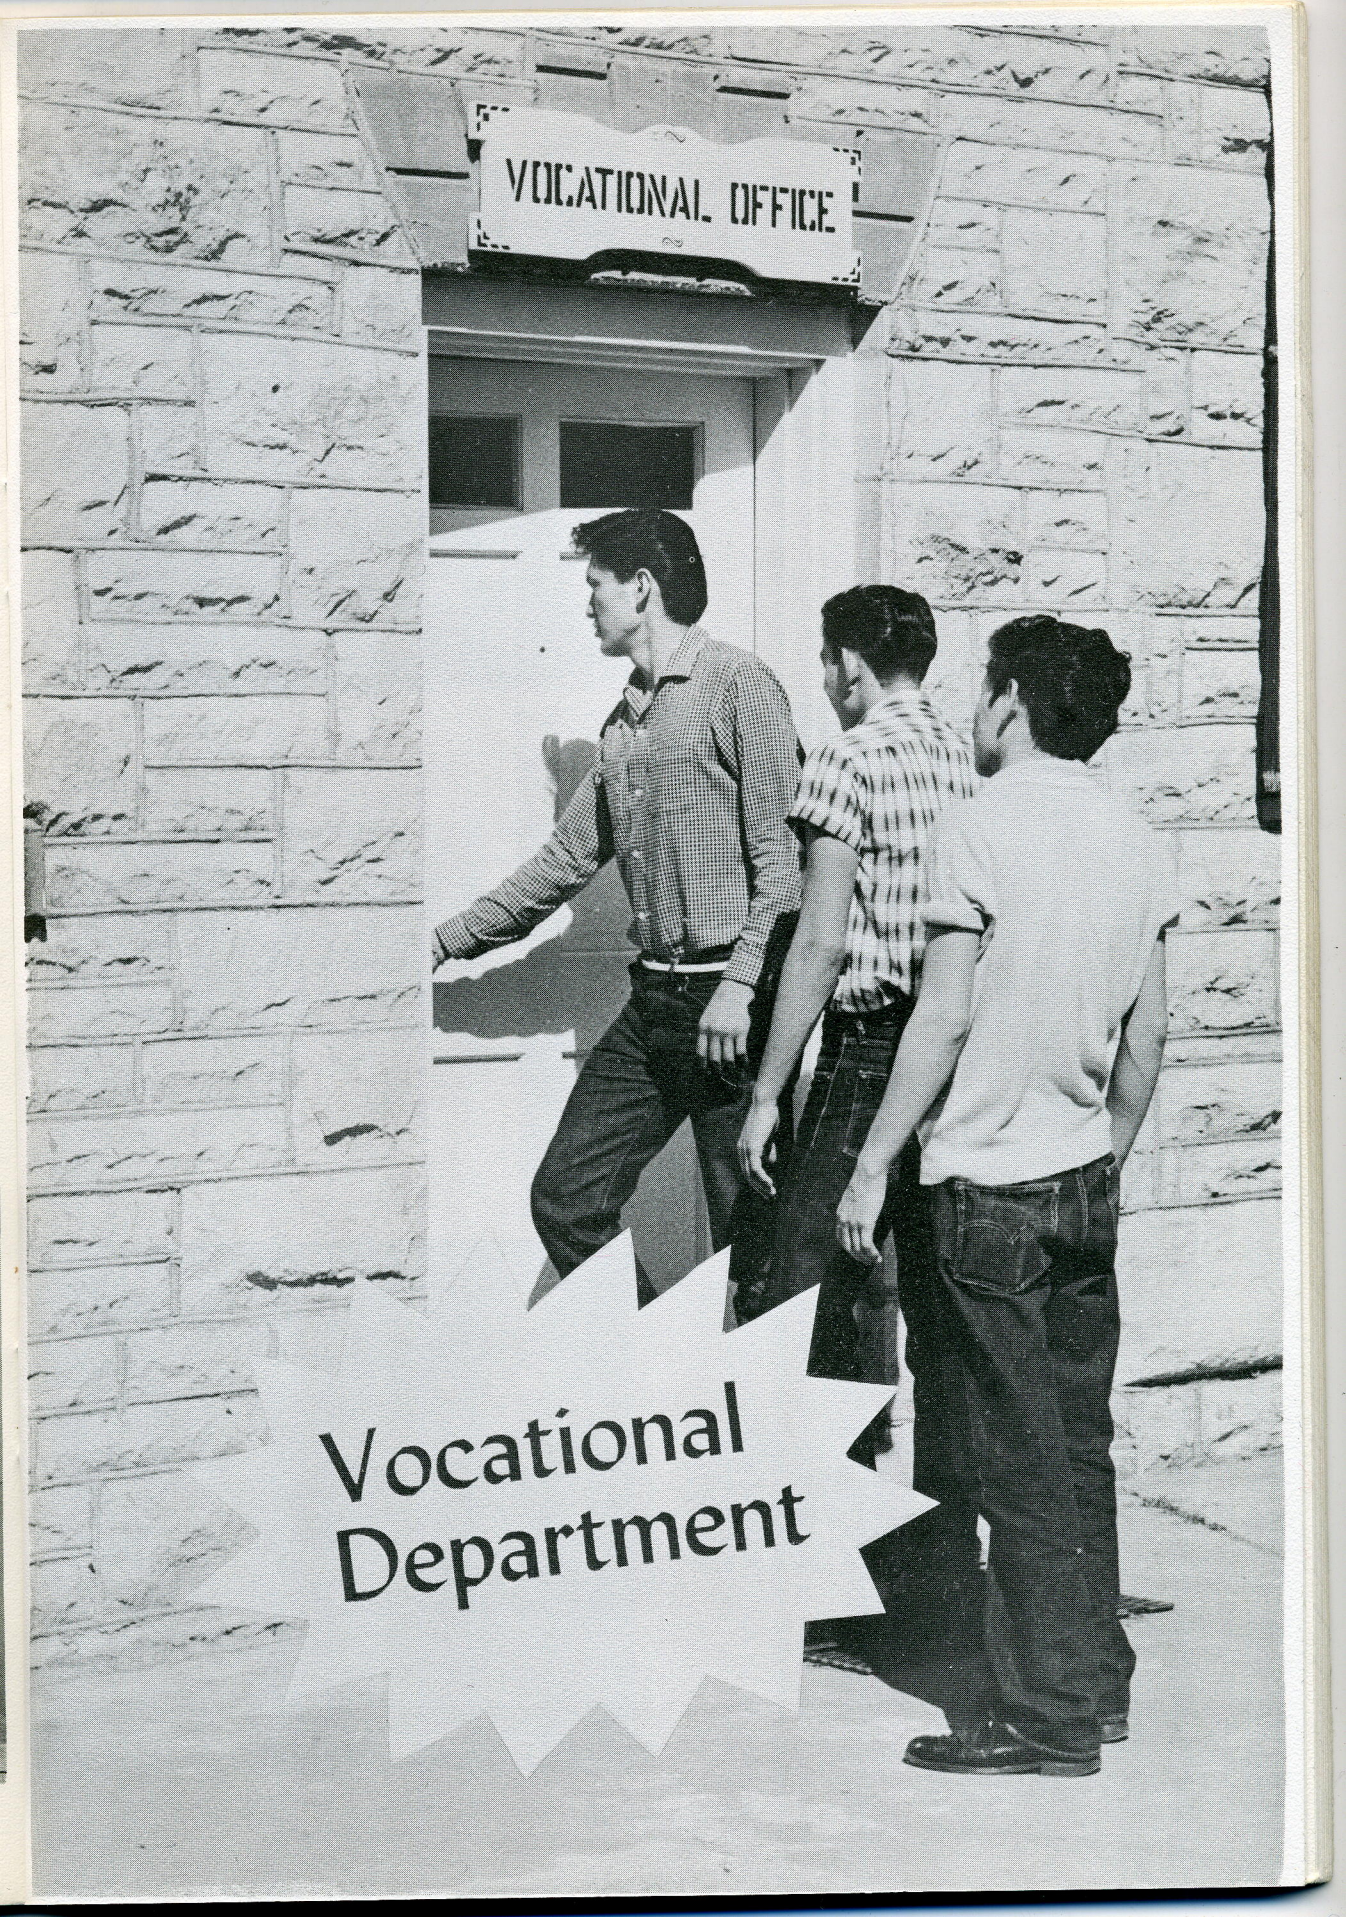

Alfred Wiley and Aaron Baker prepare their lessons for the following day.

Raymond Auck, Martin Andrew, Colson Colorow and Mrs. Mzhickteno look over the room charts.

VOCATIONAL OFFICE

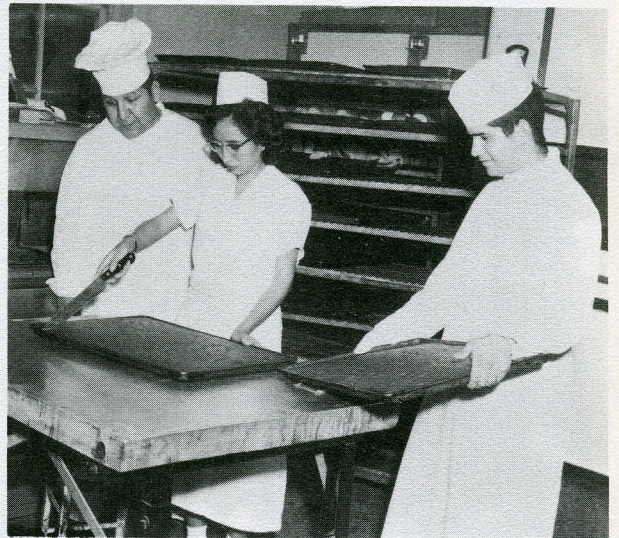

Vocational
Department

As members of Chilocco's first class in Boys' Home Economics, Joe Jackson and Coulsen Colorow, sophomores, receive instruction from Mrs. Muskratt in skills relating to practical everyday living.

Under the watchful eye of Mrs. Anderson, instructor of 4th-year Home Service Training for Navajo girls, Marie Silver-smith and Bessie Wilson Pete correctly lay a "cover" for an informal luncheon — a goal in Foods.

Jean Hatathli and Shirley Bernard prepare to serve a cake they have baked with the help of Mr. Goingkeen (left).

Darlene Brown, Susan Whiteplume and Betty Weeley entertain the children of Mrs. Martha Anderson's nursery school class with books, toys, and puzzles.

Mrs. Schell, Cosmetology instructor, watches and offers helpful suggestions to Betty Pigeon as she trims Rosie Baker's hair.

Delores Dunzy carves the meat as Imogene Hill, Della Botella and Sylvia Cloud finish table preparations for a buffet luncheon.

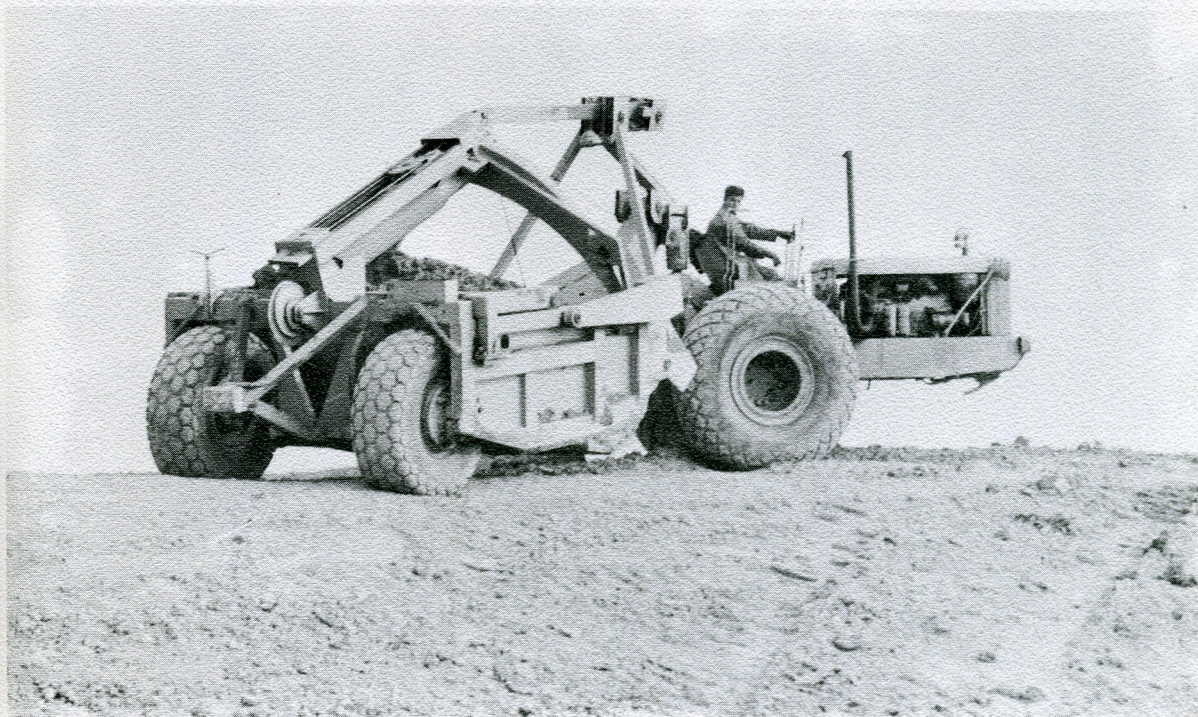

Geneva Sunagoowie, Marilyn LeClair and Sally Jessie work on their Arts and Crafts projects.

Weighing a calf is part of the training received by Johnny E. Waters and Joe John Judy in their Agriculture course.

The boys enrolled in the Heavy Equipment course can hardly await their turn to operate the "big" machinery. Here, Jimmy Osceola skillfully operates this big piece of equipment.

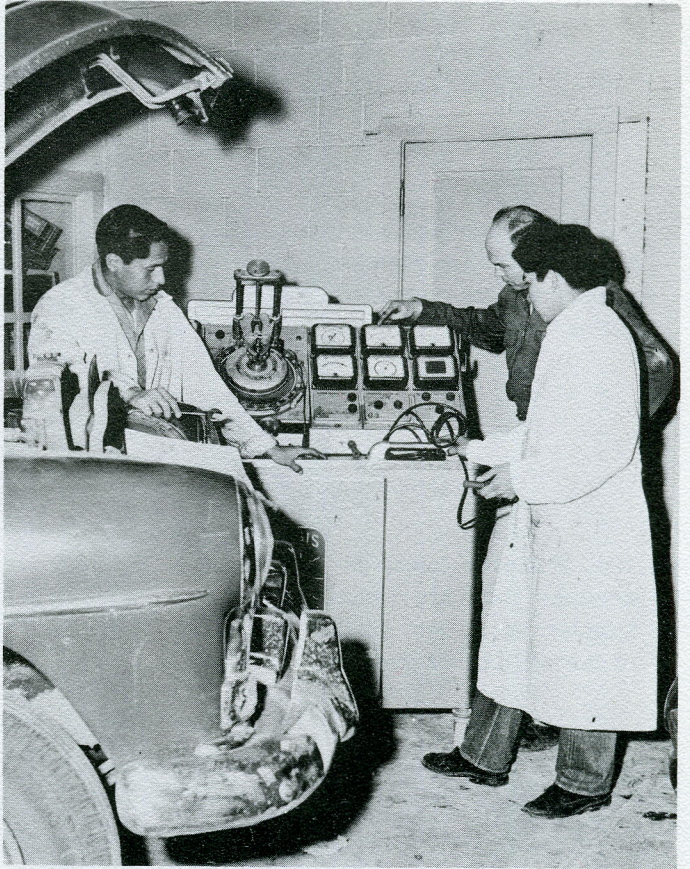

These Aggie boys are proud of the steers they have so carefully raised and tended.

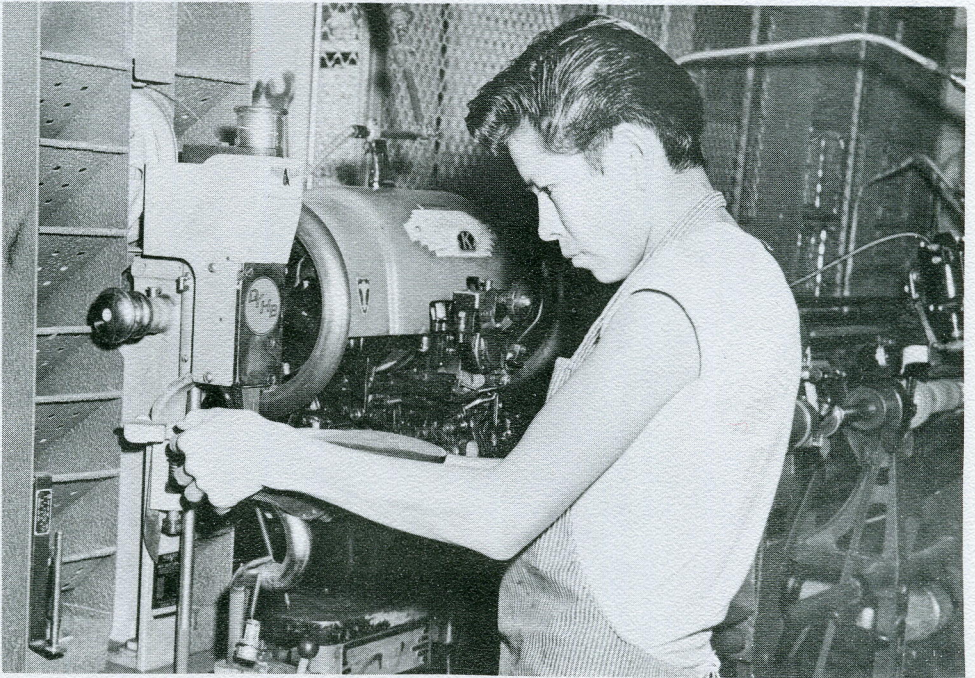

Sophomore agriculture students master the techniques of vaccinating a pig.

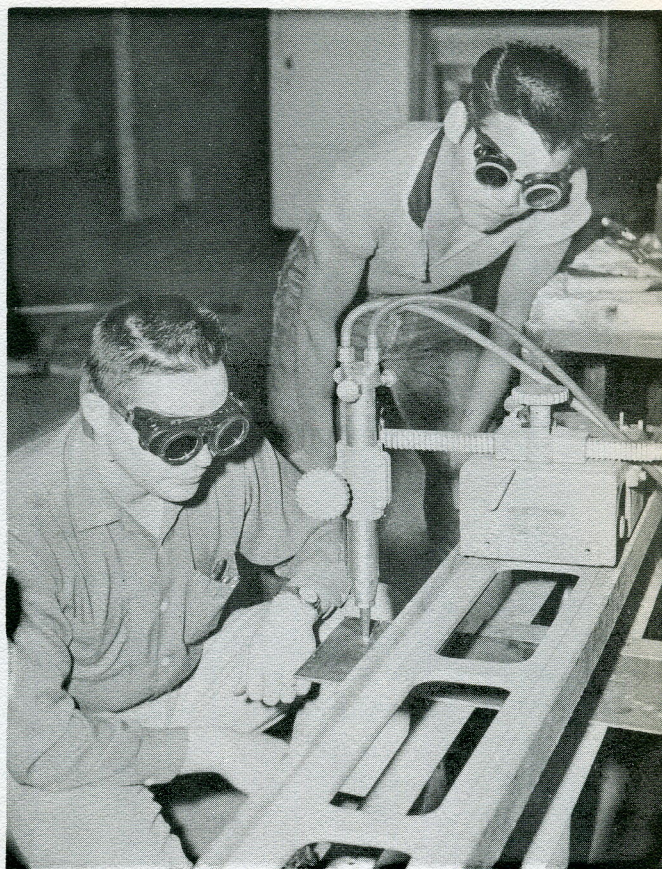

Wesley Taylor, Mr. Dye, Instructor, and Norbert Jim make good use of the testing equipment provided in the Auto Mechanics Shop.

Wallace Clark, Leathercraft and Shoe Repair student, puts new heels on shoes that have come to the shop for repair.

Mr. Earp, Welding Instructor, demonstrates to George Whitehair the correct procedures for using the acetylene cutting machine.

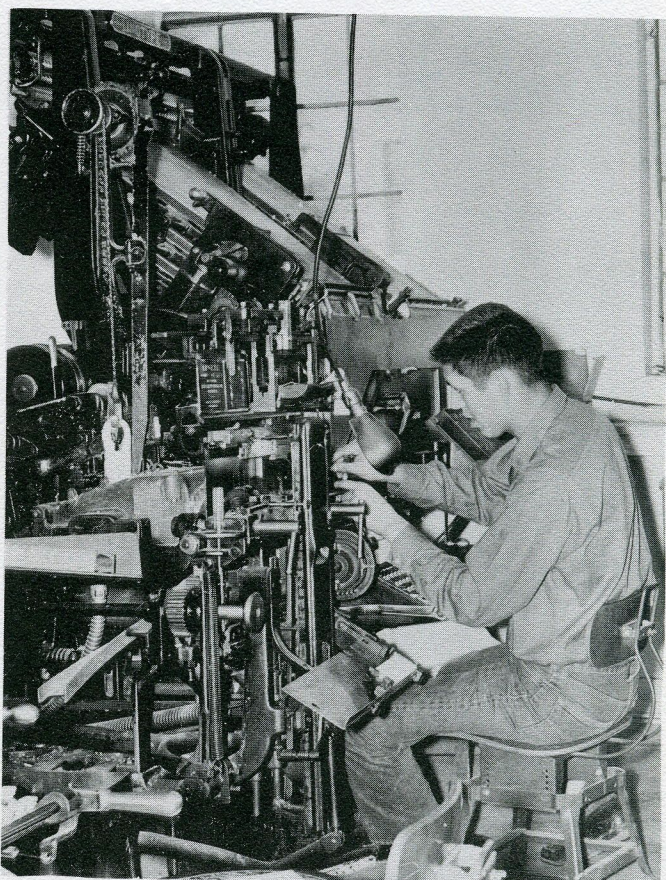

Roy Mustache receives helpful suggestions from his Practical Arts instructor, Mr. Lewis, on the correct use of the drilling machine.

John White checks over his mechanical drawings and prepares to hand them in.

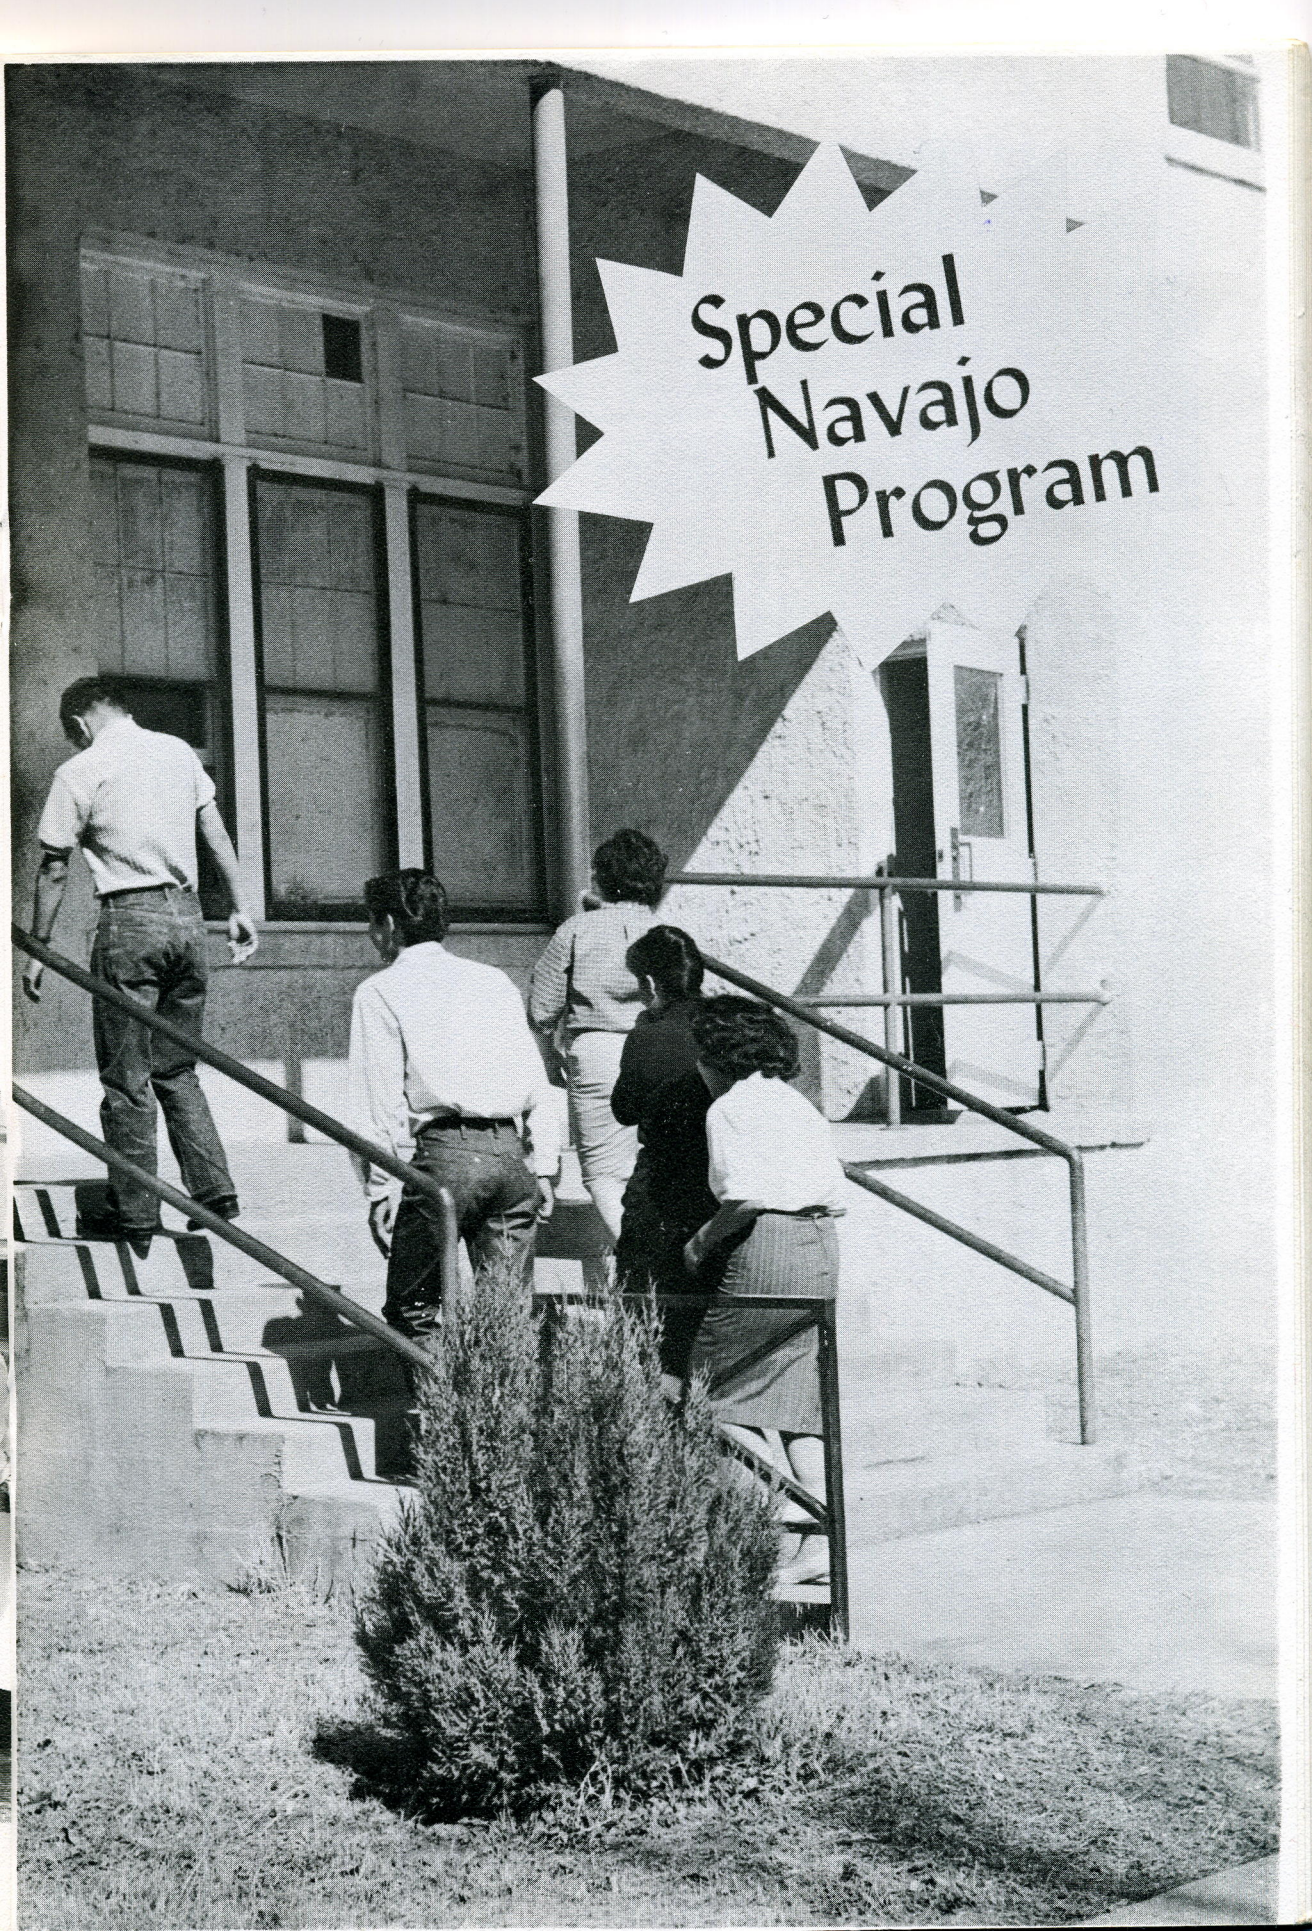

Bob Smith, a post graduate student, operates one of the three linotype machines at the print shop. Bob enjoyed setting part of the type for the 'Chiloccoan' on this machine.

Ben Peters, student from the Masonry shop, plasters a campus building.

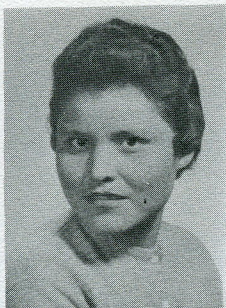

Johnny Tiger, Body and Fender Repair student, and Mr. Larney, instructor, go over some of the finer points of painting a car.
