ADDITIONAL COMMENTS: The historical marker at the ampitheater at Will Rogers Park attributed construction of the park to the CCC (as at Lincoln Park). There is reference to WPA involvement in the project cards, and the Thomas papers contains a picture of the rose garden, glasshouse, etc., and the community appraisal reports specifically refer to the garden and glasshouse, as well as three dams for small lakes. Stone entry ways do currently exist for the garden, but they are of the same style as the ampitheater and pavilion and clubhouse. It may be that the WPA put up the money for the CCC to do the work. At any rate, the work at Will Rogers Park (Northwest) is not included in this report.

Since most references to activity in Oklahoma City parks dates from allocation in late 1935 and no work can be found generally, this might be the case????
