ADDITIONAL COMMENTS: This is a large city park located in the center of Cushing. There are massive sandstone entrances on the north and west sides. Near the north entrance is a duck pond lined with stone; nearby is a large stone tree surround. Rockwork lines a gully that runs extensively through the park. In the center of the park is a massive stone entrance (swimming pool?) which has been filled in. There are tennis courts flanked by concrete benches on the northwest end of the park; just east is a ballfield. On the west side of the park is a swimming pool built in 1949, and sporting a deco look. Near the north entrance is a log cabin, erected in the early 1950s, which is rented to private groups. On the south side is a concrete block building, use unknown, which looks like it dates from the 1960s. Farther south is another ballfield with concrete bleechers. There are also 3 concrete picnic tables with benches.

ADDITIONAL COMMENTS: North side of stadium is now used by the athletic office, the art department, and as storage. The south side is made of yellow brick, it is old, but does not look to be from the same time period, perhaps dating 1940s There is very little left structurally on the south side, many alterations have been made, including intire walls removed.
The original appropriation made in 1935 was for $25,541. An additional appropriation made in 1940 for $101,219, was for dorms, seats, and lockers. I do not have any information on the dorms.
